CORAM : HONOURABLE MR.JUSTICE AKIL KURESHI

Date : 08/09/2006

ORAL JUDGMENT

1. Rule. Learned Asst. Government Pleader Ms. Shah wavier service of rule on behalf of respondent nos. 1 and 2. Learned advocate Shri Dave wavier service of rule on behalf of respondent no.3. At the joint request of the learned advocates appearing for the parties, these petitions are taken up for final disposal today.

2. All petitions raise common challenge. The petitioners are seeking admission to PTC college in management quota of self-financed institutions. Government by way of communication dated 24th April, 2006 provided for certain conditions for regulating such admission. In particular, condition no.1 required that the candidates ought to have applied earlier for common admission process. This condition came up for consideration before this Court in Special Civil Application No.17385/06 and connected matters. This Court by order dated 30th August, 2006 found that the condition is not sustainable. In this regard, this Court made following observations:

7. Only to this extent, the petitions are required to be accepted. It is made clear that none of the other conditions are under challenge before this Court nor this Court has in any manner whittled down other conditions mentioned in the communication dated 24.7.2006 as also the requirement of fulfilling other legal conditions.

8. In the result, condition No.1 of communication dated 24.7.2006 is quashed. It would be open for the petitioners to apply for the management quota of seats of PTC course in self-financed institutions provided they fulfill necessary eligibility criteria. Their applications will be considered in accordance with rules and other conditions imposed by the Government in its communication dated 24.7.2006. To the above limited extent, the petitions succeed. Rule is made absolute to the above extent with no order as to costs.

3. Issues being identical, these petitions also deserve the same treatment. Cases of petitioners shall be considered without insisting on the said condition subject to fulfillment of all other requirements and their merits.

4. With these directions, the petitions are disposed of. Rule is made absolute to the above extent. No costs.

Direct service is permitted.
